Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation.

In a free market
society competition
is healthy and by increasing
consolidation we are
decreasing competition. At this point America
stands not far from the state supported
television of the nations we disregard
as third world.
Politically
motivated programs
being forced onto affiliates is against campaign
laws and
unconstitutional.
This will set a
dangerous precedent
for the future
